PARTICIPATION & SUBMISSION

ARENA2036 hosts the 4th SCAP in 2026 in cooperation with the Institute for Control Engineering of Machine Tools and Manufacturing Units (ISW), the Institute of Electrical Energy Conversion (IEW) and the Institute for Acoustics and Building Physics (IABP) of the University of Stuttgart.

The SCAP forum invites scientists and researchers to present and discuss their work on advanced technologies in robotics, automation, logistics, and manufacturing innovations for future automotive production. The two-day program features keynote lectures, parallel scientific sessions, technology demonstrations, poster presentations and interactive workshops. The conference encourages interdisciplinary exchange between academia, industry and applied research.

This year's conference will focus on:

„Advances in Automotive Production Technology – Engineering Intelligent and Sustainable Automotive Value Chains“

All submissions must be made through Easy Chair.
